

"When my mixed breed female dog, Sienna, started experiencing allergy symptoms, I gave her one capsule twice daily, of 2DOCS Allergy Defense Formula and by the time she was about half way through the bottle her symptoms had all but disappeared. 2DOCS products are the highest quality herbal formulas on the market today. I strongly recommend them."

LESLIE R. BRANDON, ANIMAL CARE CENTER

"My 2 Shih-Tzus have been on your vitamins for over two years. They have loads of energy, their coats are beautiful, and I'm confident they're getting the vitamins they need — which is especially important on those days when they are 'finicky eaters'. Thanks again for your vitamins — my 'boys' love them!"

We are 2DOCS
PET WELLNESS

Since our partnership began in 2004, we have been totally focused on providing the very best human-grade supplements for our four-legged friends.

Dr. Randy Aronson (shown to the left) is a practicing veterinarian and host of the call-in radio show "Radio Pet Vet with Dr. Aronson." For more than 20 years, Dr. Aronson has integrated Eastern and Western healing therapies, advocating a holistic approach for pet wellness. Using acupuncture, herbal medicine and chiropractic techniques, enhanced with human-grade nutritional supplements, Dr. Aronson has created greater health and happiness both for pets and their people.

Dr. Hank Liers (shown to the right) is a physicist and designer of nutritional supplements with more than two decades experience and an international reputation for excellence. In 1988, Dr. Liers founded Health Products Distributors, Inc., which formulates cutting-edge, natural nutritional supplements for humans, using only the purest ingredients. In the early 1990s, Dr. Liers, in collaboration with Dr. Aronson, began testing human-grade formulas for veterinary use, achieving spectacular results.

When it comes to your pet's health, we're only human.

2DOCS
PET WELLNESS

Pure, natural pet supplements made from the finest human-grade ingredients.

It's been said,
"You are what you eat"...

Even though you may provide an excellent diet for your pets, they, like us humans, need supplements to maintain and improve their overall health.

2DOCS combines the expertise and talents of two doctors, formulator Hank Liers, PhD and veterinarian Randy Aronson, who have teamed up to create an exclusive line of superior quality pet nutritional products using only the best human-grade ingredients to promote a healthy lifestyle for our loving companions. The 2DOCS line includes supplements that provide daily core nutrition (Red Label), target specific medical conditions (Blue Label), and healing superfoods (Green Label) that provide critical nourishment commonly missing in our pets' diets.

Core Nutrition – Red Label

2DOCS core nutrition daily diet supplements build a solid foundation for your pet's health, helping to keep immune systems strong, which ultimately saves you money when it comes to veterinary care.

Essential Fats for Pets™ helps dogs and cats develop smooth, glossy coats and reduces shedding.

Pet-C Plus™ supports your pet's immune function and helps treat common fungal infections, such as Valley Fever.

Pet Mighty-Multi™ formulas, for both large and small pets, provide essential nutrients to create and maintain excellent health and promote rapid recovery from conditions of poor health.

Specific Conditions – Blue Label

The 2DOCS specific conditions formulas target common pet maladies. Dr. Randy has used them in his own veterinary practice with very successful results.

Allergy Defense™ reduces itching and scratching when your pet suffers from atopic allergies.

Diabetes Defense™ enables pets to decrease, or even discontinue, their dosages of insulin.

Joint Health Formula™, available in capsules or powder, helps treat arthritis and other joint-related issues.

GI Defense™ is the very best solution for treating gastrointestinal tract distress, including diarrhea, vomiting, ulcers and inflammation.

Superfoods – Green Label

These unique superfood formulas promote rejuvenation, vitality, healing and longevity.

Rejuvenate!™ For Pets includes nucleic acids that support regeneration, repair, growth and healing. This revolutionary green superfood will revitalize your pets.

Cell Support For Pets™ is a high-nutrient density formula containing superfoods, vitamins and antioxidants, minerals, RNA sources/precursors, and herbs. It supports repair, free-radical defense, immune strengthening, detoxification, tissue oxygenation, and healing processes in your pet's body.
